

SWINGSTAR

Under "TAMA" name, the new SWINGSTAR offers several important upgrades for its specification and can offer to the beginner and intermediate player with a level of sound quality and features.

*New logo design on the front bass drum head symbolizes new SWINGSTAR's upgrade and it is TAMA's continuous effort for keeping TAMA's quality standard also to the lower range.

*Without losing its competitive price point, each stand has one size bigger diameter of pipe for extended stability which also contribute its strong appearance.

*The Drum Pedal is also upgraded by using chain drive on sprocket for smooth circular-cam action.
